

My Father, My Hero

My Father, My Hero
A man of faith and a man of love
Now worshipping in heaven above
A man who loved with all his heart
His wife, his children, and friends both near and far
And his grandchildren who meant so much
To a man who cared with such a gentle touch
A teacher, a mentor, and a friend to so many
His faith and love were plenty
And now he is smiling down on us from heaven above
With all his heart and all his love

For our dear father, Carl Robert Colborne.

Benediction

Song for the Mira

Song For the Mira

Out on the Mira
On warm afternoons
Old men go fishin'
With block, line, and spoons
And if they catch nothing,
They'll never complain
I wish i was with them again.

As boys in their boats
Called to girls on the shore
Teasing the ones that they dearly adore
And into the evening the courting begins
I wish i was with them again.

Can you imagine a piece of the universe
More fit for princes and kings?
I'll trade you ten of your cities
For Marion Bridge and the pleasure it brings.

Out on the Mira on soft summer nights
Bon fires blaze to the childrens delights.
They dance around they flame
Singing songs with their friends
And I wish I was with them again.

Can you imagine a piece of the universe
More fit for princes and kings?
I'll trade you ten of your cities
For Marion Bridge and the pleasure it brings.

Now I'll conclude with a wish you go well,
Sweet be your dreams and your happiness swell.
I'll leave you here for my journey begins.
I'm going to be to with them, going to be with them, I'm going to be with them again.

Can you imagine a piece of the universe
More fit for princes and kings?
I'll trade you ten of your cities
For Marion Bridge and the pleasure it brings.
I wish i was with them
Wish i was with them
I'm going to be with again.
